AND CONSTANTLY INCREASING.
The Charter of this Company offers more favorable advantages to the farmer and others, than any ble advantages to the farmer and others, than any Company chartered in the State, by insuring with or without a premium note. If the applicant prefer, he can pay the full amount of the premium in cash, or by effecting a cash insurance for two in cash, or by effecting a cash insurance for two years, the insured saves one-eighth of the amount he would otherwise have to pay; or by becoming a member, and giving a small premium note, the in-sured saves nearly one-half of the amount charged by Stock Companies, when insuring from year to year. This is the advantage resulting from the combination of the CASH AND MUTUAL PRINCIPLE. This Company commenced issuing Policies against loss or damage by fire, on the 13th day of March, 1854, since which time over seven thousand March, 1854, since which time ever seven thousand seven hundred persons have insured and become members of the Company, and over seventy thou-sand dollars have been paid for losses. Having increased our business during the past year, we feel grateful for the liberal patronage bestowed upon the Company thus far, and for its flattering pros-pects of future usefulness. The Directors hope pects of inture usefulness. The Directors hope and believe, that, by prudence, caution, and a rigid system of economy, they will establish for this Company a reputation for cheapness and safety not surpassed by any Company in the U. MISCELLANEOUS READING. HOMEWARD BOUND.

it close of Southern Baptist Convention in Richmon We live as pilgrims and as strangers below, We're are homeward bound; Though often tempted, yet onward we go, We're homeward bound. Trials and crosses we cheerfully bear, Toils and temptations expecting to share, We hasten forward content with the fare, We're homeward bound. Earth with its trifles, we all have resigned, We're homeward bound;

Heaven, with its glories, we shortly shall find, We're homeward bound. Sinful amusements no longer are dear, O, how delusive and vain they appear, While to our home we are drawing so near,

We're homeward bound. We'll tell the world as we journey along, We're homeward bound;

Try to persuade them to enter our throng, We're homeward bound. Come, trembling sinner, forlorn and opprest, Join our number, O come and be blest, Journey with us to the mansion of rest, We're homeward bound.

Soon we'll be singing if faithful we prove, We're home at last! Sounding in triumph in mansions above, We're home at last. Soon as our toils and temptations are o'er,

O how we'll shout as we enter the door, We're home at last. MURAT'S COURAGE.

Up to our home with the blest we shall soar,

He was reviewing several battalions in the Campo di Marte, when in the midst of the fire one of the officers of the staff, who supposed the ball had been directed against the King himself, and what made the case more serious was, that the shot had come from a battalion of the royal guard, amongst which were many Carbonari. The officers in attendance upon the King entreated him to order the fire to cease; but he smiled as he replied, "I see that you suspect the bullet was purposely fired at me; but you are in reduction on early Spring prices, and will be sold cheap.
